

THE MARK

Located on New York's Upper East Side in a beautiful 1927 landmark building, The Mark Hotel is housed at the corner of Madison Avenue and 77th Street. In 2009 The Mark was completely reimagined and given new life and identity for the 21st century. The Mark combines old-world comfort, avant-garde design, up-to-the-minute technologies, and an unprecedented level of personal service.

Drawing on the expertise of an extraordinary group of talents - foremost among them the designer Jacques Grange, three-Michelin starred chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten, the world's most celebrated hairstylist Frédéric Fekkai and General Manager Manuel Martinez - The Mark hotel is the beacon of high French style, immaculate service, American technology and comfort.

HOTEL ASSETS

Frédéric Fekkai Salon at The Mark

Renowned stylist Frederic Fekkai is one of the most celebrated names in beauty and hairstyling. Acclaimed for his modern, individualistic approach, Frederic has made an indelible impact on the beauty and fashion communities. Frederic personally selected The Mark for his latest, intimate salon, where clients are treated to unheard of levels of pampering at this full-service beauty retreat.

The Mark Restaurant by Jean-Georges

Jean-Georges Vongerichten brings his unbridled passion for fresh from the market, simple cooking to The Mark Hotel. A world class menu of subtly innovative European classics as well as Jean-Georges' signature global seasonings will be sure to satisfy cravings for both simple and eclectic palates alike. Showcased in a copper and glass wine wall in the dining room, The Mark Restaurant's collection of boutique and familiar food friendly wines, from around the world, focus on value and diversity. Seating 104 guests, with a private dining room for an additional 20 patrons, The Mark Restaurant serves Breakfast, Lunch, Late Lunch, Dinner, Late Dinner and Sunday Brunch. Find more information at www.themarkrestaurantnyc.com.

The Mark Bar

The chicest meeting spot on Madison Avenue, The Mark Bar features a stunning design and layout by Jacques Grange, avant-garde bar design by iconic French artist Guy de Rougemont and playfully unique furniture by Vladimir Kagan.

Fitness Center at The Mark

The State-of-the-art fitness center at The Mark features top of the range equipment available exclusively to residents and guests. Guests can book on-site personal training, fitness assessments and dietary guidance sessions with The Mark's own personal trainer Dan Flores, in addition to the celebrated Upper East Side mixed martial arts and kickboxing experts at Punch Fitness. Founded by former Thai Boxing Champion, Adelino DaCosta, Punch offers guests the highest quality one-on-one physical conditioning, together with the perfect hotel facility to begin a journey of martial arts, achieve fitness goals and strengthening of the mind.

The Mark Shine by John Lobb

The Mark has partnered with John Lobb, the world's most exclusive creator of men's shoes and accessories, to create a shoeshine kiosk located on the second floor of the hotel. The shoeshine service is available to hotel guests, travelers, on the go businessmen and neighborhood residents. The Mark Shine by John Lobb provides patrons with a proper buff, delivered by a dedicated butler trained in the art of shoe care.

The Mark Bikes

A stylish fleet of custom bicycles are available exclusively to guests at The Mark. Manufactured by Republic Bike, the bicycles incorporate elements of the hotel's whimsical design by Jacques Grange including a striped chain case and monogrammed bells. The Mark Bikes come complete with 'MARK' license plates, signature black and white helmets and baskets. For the ultimate picnic in the park, enjoy a 'lunch-to-go' created by celebrated chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten. The gourmet picnic basket includes all the picnic essentials – blanket, cutlery, condiments, and a specially designed bottle cooler. As a finishing touch, The Mark's award-winning chef concierge, Isabelle Hogan, has curated an illustrated bike map to help guests navigate Central Park.

The Mark Pedicabs

The Mark bespoke pedicabs are complimentary to guests to enjoy by private driver. Lavishly designed to incorporate the iconic features of Jacques Grange's exquisite design vision for the hotel, The Mark pedicab amenity pays homage to a bygone era of European style and hospitality. The iconic black and white striped canopies are inspired by the striking lobby entrance at the hotel while the bold orange custom-upholstered seats make for an eye-catching statement against the sleek black body of the cabs. The pedicabs are adorned with the ultimate stamp of luxury, The Mark's signature monogram.

The Mark Sailboat

A luxurious 70-foot Herreshoff-designed vessel is available for guests to privately charter from Tribeca's North Cove Marina for a three-hour journey around Manhattan in the spring and summer. Extraordinaire designer Jacques Grange's signature black and-white striped marble for The Mark's iconic lobby inspired the elegant accommodations aboard The Mark Sailboat. Passengers can enjoy the on-board menu featuring small bites and refreshments by Jean-Georges Vongerichten, while taking in the sunsets and breathtaking views of the New York skyline and Statue of Liberty.

Meetings at The Mark

The Mark Hotel features two meeting rooms located on the second floor overlooking Madison Avenue and Seventy Seventh Street. The meeting rooms, designed by Jacques Grange, have a residential feel and are perfect for a business meeting or a social function. The fastest wireless high-speed internet access is complimentary.
