THE MARK

Where? Upper East Side

Self-described as New York's most 'boldly lavish' hotel, The Mark is famously where the Duchess of Sussex held her baby shower. It's a royal favourite for a reason: the rooms are luxe and the views of the Upper East Side rooftops are plentiful. Expect opulence and old-world glamour as soon as you step in the lobby and The Mark - Jean-Georges Vongerichten's French-American restaurant – is great for dinner but shines at breakfast with its varied menu. You can even opt for a 'lunch to go' created by the famed chef, and take it to Central Park on one of The Mark's signature bicycles.
