NEW YORK'S MOST BOLDLY LAVISH HOTEL

The Mark is housed in a beautiful, 1920's landmark building at the corner of 77th Street and Madison Avenue in the heart of Manhattan's Upper East Side. Step inside, and The Mark has been completely reimagined, giving it a new life and identity for the 21st century.

The Mark harmonizes old-world comfort, avant-garde design, up-to-the-minute technologies and an unprecedented level of personal service to create one of the finest five-star hotels in the world.

Drawing on the expertise of an extraordinary group of talents, foremost among them the legendary designer Jacques Grange, The Mark Hotel is a beacon of high French style and modern American comfort in the heart of New York City.

JACQUES GRANGE DESIGN

Celebrated as one of the greatest interior designers of our time, The Mark turned to French visionary, Jacques Grange to mastermind the hotel's iconic design.

With a list of projects that traverse the world's most metropolitan cities and a client roster that ranges from Yves Saint Laurent to the Princess of Monaco, Grange's masterful ability to harmonize the timeless with the contemporary became the foundation for The Mark's boldly lavish style.

Unleashing the full range of his talents, The Mark's public spaces are vibrant and sophisticated while each guest room in the hotel perfectly marries high-visual style with elegant comfort.

In addition to selecting and designing custom furnishings, he collaborated with the Parisian antiqueur, Pierre Passebon, to commission a treasure trove of objets d'art, furniture and lighting fixtures to create special design moments throughout the hotel. All exclusively crafted for The Mark by renowned artists and artisans, the hotel showcases works by Ron Arad, Vladimir Kagan, Mattia Bonetti, Paul Mathieu, Eric Schmitt, Rachel Howard, Todd Eberle, and Karl Lagerfeld, among others.

It was Grange who envisioned the mesmerizing black and white striped floors that have become synonymous with The Mark.

ROOMS & SUITES

Each guest room and suite at The Mark Hotel provides a luxurious retreat from the bustling city. Similar to the great public spaces of the hotel, Jacques Grange applied his same bold vision and exacting eye for detail, but with a quieter, more subtle elegance.

With six categories of rooms, twelve categories of suites, two specialty suites and The Mark Penthouse, the hotel offers unmatched havens of understated luxury.

PENTHOUSE

The Mark Hotel's penthouse is the largest hotel penthouse suite in the USA at over 10,000 square feet of interior space and 2,500 square feet of rooftop terrace space overlooking Central Park. The unprecedentedly spacious penthouse is set out over the top two floors of The Mark Hotel and includes five bedrooms, four fireplaces, six bathrooms, two powder rooms, and two wet bars.

The Mark Penthouse boasts its own Conservatory, Library Lounge, stately Dining Room and a stunning private rooftop terrace with an outdoor dining & entertaining area and breathtaking views of the city.

THE MARK RESTAURANT BY JEAN-GEORGES

Esteemed chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten brings his unbridled passion for fresh from the market ingredients and sophisticated cooking techniques to The Mark Hotel.

A chic and buzzing favorite of local New Yorkers and hotel guests alike, The Mark Restaurant offers both indoor and outdoor all-day dining, year-round. With seasonal menus of subtly innovative European classics elevated by Jean-Georges' signature global seasonings, the restaurant serves a range of dishes that cater to all taste palates. Whether dining in the sun-lit atrium or nestled in the cozy elegance of the lounge, dining at The Mark guarantees a sophisticated, Upper East Side experience.

Helmed by veteran culinary expert, chef Pierre Schutz, the restaurant seats 104 guests with a private dining room for an additional 22 patrons. The Mark Restaurant offers all-day dining, late-night menus, festive specials and 24-hour room service to hotel guests, straight from Jean-Georges kitchen.

Showcased within a copper and glass wine wall in the dining room, The Mark Restaurant's expertly selected collection of boutique wines from around the world offer excellence in flavor and diversity.

THE MARK BAR

The Mark Bar is the pinnacle of boldly lavish luxury. Expertly crafted cocktails are shaken and stirred behind an avant -garde bar designed by iconic French artist, Guy de Rougemont. Against a backdrop of stunning design elements and beautiful accents, playful furniture by Vladamir Kagan subtly juxtaposes The Bar's timeless features, making The Mark Bar the most elegant place for a cocktail (or two).

CAVIAR KASPIA AT THE MARK

The Mark prides itself on bringing authentic French flair to the heart of Manhattan, which makes this storied Parisian establishment a perfect addition to The Mark's repertoire of unparalleled offerings. 1927 not only signifies the year that The Mark's landmark structure was built, it marks the same year that spawned the first location of Caviar Kaspia, across the Atlantic in 20th Century Paris, and where the 'Art of Caviar' was born.

Caviar Kaspia at The Mark is the first of its kind, designed by the visionary Jacques Grange. Embodying the DNA of the famously chic Parisian restaurant with the same inviting atmosphere and ambiance, Caviar Kaspia at The Mark evokes old world elegance and charm. Credited as the mastermind behind The Mark's boldly lavish style, Jacques Grange harmonizes French sophistication with New York sensibilities, selecting Caviar Kaspia's familiar blue tablecloths, emerald-green mohair banquettes, wood paneled walls, and a sculptured Belgian black marble bar to transform the space.

The restaurant serves an exceptional menu of signature dishes which are perfectly complimented by the finest selection of caviars. The menu features restaurant favorites such as the legendary twice-baked potato topped with caviar, blinis with smoked salmon, bottarga, vegetarian caviar made from liquified and spherized truffle, eggs with caviar, pasta with caviar, and many other delectable delicacies. Perfectly paired with a glass of champagne or shot of vodka, Caviar Kaspia offers eight different types of farm raised caviar, spanning multiple regions around the world and expanding various taste profiles and access.

THE MARK EXPERIENCE

The Mark's dedication to an unprecedented level of personal service is exemplified by the thoughtfully curated array of amenities on offer. Some favorites include: The Mark Sailboat, picnics in Central Park by Jean-Georges, and The Fekkai Salon, amongst others.
