

The US Open Takes Over New York & These Luxury Hotels are Rolling Out the Red Carpet

By Adrienne Faurete, Fashion & Jewelry Director / Editor-in-Chief of Haute Time

As the US Open electrifies New York City this season, tennis enthusiasts and luxury travelers converge on the Big Apple for an unforgettable blend of world-class sports and opulent hospitality. Held at the iconic USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center, the tournament draws global attention with its thrilling matches and vibrant atmosphere. Complementing the excitement, New York's premier luxury hotels are rolling out exclusive packages, bespoke experiences, and unparalleled amenities tailored to US Open attendees. From courtside-inspired suites to curated dining and wellness offerings, these establishments elevate the tournament experience, ensuring guests enjoy both the thrill of the game and the pinnacle of comfort and style.

THE MARK HOTEL

Photo Credit: Courtesy of Caviar Kaspia

At The Mark Hotel's iconic Caviar Kaspia, guests can savor the Honey Deuce à la Mark, a sophisticated twist on the US Open's classic Grey Goose cocktail, featuring vodka, yuzu, hibiscus, blood orange, rose hips, and soda for $23 throughout the tournament. This exclusive drink offers a chic way to toast the tennis season on the Upper East Side.