

THE SOURCE.

160

MODERN LUXURY

THE SOURCE

The Mark ushers in the holiday season with dazzling decor and festive flair.

Sleigh All Stay

This holiday season, New York City's premier hotels—and iconic destinations beyond—are decking the halls in true festive style. by RACHEL FEINBLATT

MUSEUMS

The Metropolitan Museum of Art (The Met)
A world-renowned cultural treasure trove spanning 5,000 years of art, from ancient artifacts to modern masterpieces. 1000 Fifth Ave., Upper East Side, 212.535.7710, metmuseum.org

The Museum of Modern Art (MoMA)
A landmark institution for modern and contemporary art, home to works by Van Gogh, Warhol, Picasso, and Kusama. 11 W. 53rd St., Midtown, 212.708.9400, moma.org

The Whitney Museum of American Art
A vibrant celebration of 20th- and 21st-century American art, known for its cutting-edge exhibitions and iconic Meatpacking rooftop views. 99 Gansevoort St., Meatpacking District, 212.570.3600, whitney.org

The Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum
Housed in Frank Lloyd Wright's iconic spiral building, the Guggenheim showcases modern and contemporary art in a one-of-a-kind architectural experience. 1071 Fifth Ave., Upper East Side, 212.423.3500, guggenheim.org

The Frick Collection
The recently reopened and renovated museum is back to its full Gilded Age glory to reimagine the Old Masters collection in a spectacular setting, creating bold new visual dialogues. 945 Madison Ave., Madison Avenue, 212.288.0700, frick.org

The Morgan Library & Museum
A Gilded Age marvel turned museum, the Morgan houses illuminated manuscripts, rare books, and drawings by da

Vinci, Rembrandt, and more. 225 Madison Ave., Murray Hill, 212.685.0008, themorgan.org

The Jewish Museum
Dedicated to Jewish culture and art, this institution features rotating exhibitions of contemporary, historical, and ceremonial works. 1109 Fifth Ave., Upper East Side, 212.423.3200, thejewishmuseum.org

The Neue Galerie
A jewel-box museum specializing in early 20th-century German and Austrian art, including Klimt's Portrait of Adele Bloch-Bauer I. 1048 Fifth Ave., at 86th St., Upper East Side, 212.628.6200, neuegalerie.org

The Museum of Arts and Design (MAD)
Celebrating the intersection of craft, design, and contemporary creativity with exhibitions on everything from ceramics to couture. 2 Columbus Circle, Columbus Circle, 212.299.7777, madmuseum.org

The Museum at FIT (Fashion Institute of Technology)
A fashion lover's must-see, this free museum highlights costume design, textiles, and fashion history from Dior to Balenciaga. 227 W. 27th St., Chelsea, 212.217.4558, fitny.cuny.edu/museum

The New Museum
A leading destination for boundary-pushing contemporary art, this Bowery institution champions emerging voices and experimental exhibitions. 235 Bowery, Lower East Side, 212.219.1222, newmuseum.org

The Shed
A transformative cultural space at Hudson Yards presenting visual art, performance, and interdisciplinary works on a grand scale. 545 W. 30th St., Hudson Yards, 646.455.3494, theshed.org

MoMA PS1
MoMA's experimental Queens outpost, known for avant-garde installations, Warm Up music series, and cutting-edge contemporary programming. 22-25 Jackson Ave., Long Island City, Queens, 718.784.2084, momaps1.org

The Bronx Museum of the Arts
A contemporary art museum with a strong community focus, spotlighting BIPOC artists and global perspectives.

1040 Grand Concourse, Bronx, 718.681.6000, bronxmuseum.org

El Museo del Barrio
Celebrating Latinx, Caribbean, and Latin American cultures through contemporary art, traditional works, and immersive exhibitions. 1230 Fifth Ave., East Harlem, 212.831.7272, elmuseo.org

The Studio Museum in Harlem
(reopening soon in a new building) A groundbreaking institution dedicated to artists of

Ice Ice Baby

Signature festive experiences return in true Upper East Side style at The Mark. Guests staying in the 10,000-square-foot penthouse can enjoy exclusive access to a private rooftop skating rink overlooking Central Park and the Manhattan skyline. Meanwhile, the hotel's iconic Grand Cru Hot Chocolate makes its seasonal debut at the hot dog cart once again—a decadent blend of eight single-origin cossos topped with a Guaraná marshmallow float. 25 E. 77 St., themarkhotel.com