JACQUES GRANGE DESIGN

Celebrated as one of the greatest interior designers of our time, The Mark turned to French visionary, Jacques Grange to mastermind the hotel's iconic design.

With a list of projects that traverse the world's most metropolitan cities and a client roster that ranges from Yves Saint Laurent to the Princess of Monaco, Grange's masterful ability to harmonize the timeless with the contemporary became the foundation for The Mark's boldly lavish style.

Unleashing the full range of his talents, The Mark's public spaces are vibrant and sophisticated while each guest room in the hotel perfectly marries high-visual style with elegant comfort. It was Grange who envisioned the mesmerizing black and white striped floors that have become synonymous with The Mark.

In addition to selecting and designing custom furnishings, he collaborated with the Parisian antiquaire, Pierre Passebon, to commission a treasure trove of objets d'art, furniture and lighting fixtures to create special design moments throughout the hotel. All exclusively crafted for The Mark by renowned artists and artisans, the hotel showcases works by Ron Arad, Vladimir Kagan, Mattia Bonetti, Paul Mathieu, Eric Schmitt, Rachel Howard, Todd Eberle, and Karl Lagerfeld, among others.

ROOMS & SUITES

Each guest room and suite at The Mark Hotel provides a luxurious retreat from the bustling city. Similar to the great public spaces of the hotel, Jacques Grange applied his same bold vision and exacting eye for detail, but with a quieter, more subtle elegance.

With six categories of rooms, nine categories of suites, three signature suites and The Penthouse Collection, the hotel offers unmatched havens of understated luxury. Many of our accommodations also feature the option to connect, providing additional space and flexibility for families and larger groups.

THE MARK RESTAURANT BY JEAN-GEORGES

Esteemed chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten brings his unbridled passion for fresh from the market ingredients and sophisticated cooking techniques to The Mark Hotel.

A chic and buzzing favorite of local New Yorkers and hotel guests alike, The Mark Restaurant offers both indoor and outdoor all-day dining, year-round. With seasonal menus of subtly innovative European classics elevated by Jean-Georges' signature global seasonings, the restaurant serves a range of dishes that cater to all taste palates. Whether dining in the sun-lit atrium or nestled in the cozy elegance of the lounge, dining at The Mark guarantees a sophisticated, Upper East Side experience.

THE MARK BAR

The Mark Bar is the pinnacle of boldly lavish luxury. Expertly crafted cocktails are shaken and stirred behind an avant-garde bar designed by iconic French artist, Guy de Rougemont. Against a backdrop of stunning design elements and beautiful accents, playful furniture by Vladimir Kagan subtly juxtaposes The Bar's timeless features, making The Mark Bar the most elegant place for a cocktail (or two).

CAVIAR KASPIA AT THE MARK

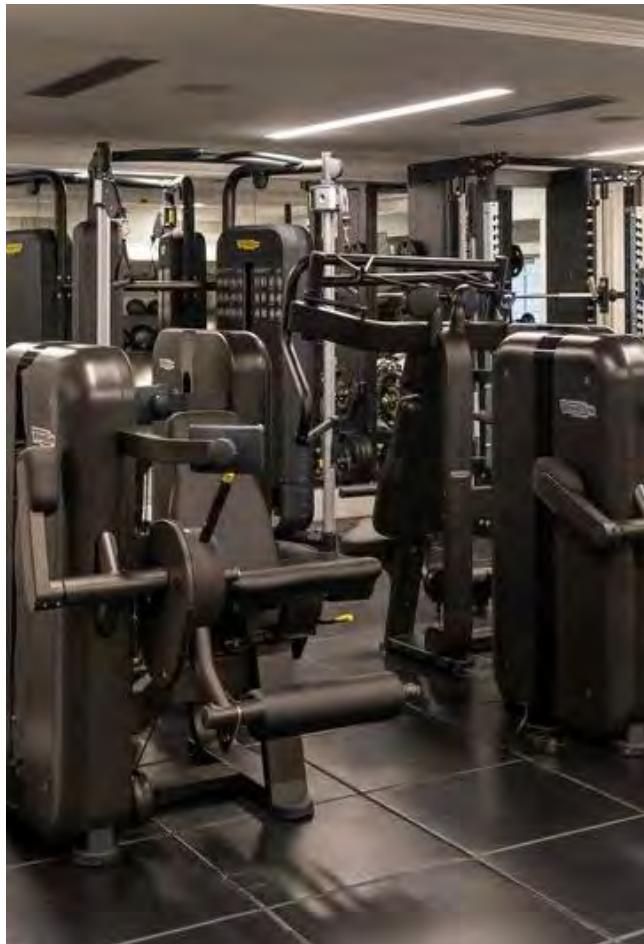

The Mark prides itself on bringing authentic French flair to the heart of Manhattan, which makes this storied Parisian establishment a perfect addition to The Mark's repertoire of unparalleled offerings.

Caviar Kaspia at The Mark is the first of its kind, designed by the visionary Jacques Grange. Embodying the DNA of the famously chic Parisian restaurant with the same inviting atmosphere and ambiance, Caviar Kaspia at The Mark evokes old world elegance and charm. Credited as the mastermind behind The Mark's boldly lavish style, Jacques Grange harmonizes French sophistication with New York sensibilities, selecting Caviar Kaspia's familiar blue tablecloths, emerald-green mohair banquettes, wood paneled walls, and a sculptured Belgian black marble bar to transform the space.

The restaurant serves an exceptional menu of signature dishes which are perfectly complimented by the finest selection of caviars. The menu features restaurant favorites such as the legendary twice-baked potato topped with caviar, blinis with smoked salmon, bottarga, vegetarian caviar made from liquified and spherized truffle, eggs with caviar, pasta with caviar, and many other delectable delicacies.
