Starting May 30, 2026 , The Mark relaunches its iconic sailing ship for the summer season , now departing from Chelsea Piers. Aboard a 70-foot Herreshoff, guests embark on a two-hour cruise through the heart of New York Harbor, between the skyline and the Statue of Liberty, with a culinary experience by Jean-Georges or Caviar Kaspia. Cruises are offered from May to September, with several dates each month.

For the summer season of 2026, The Mark marks the return of its iconic sailing ship and opens a new chapter in this experience that has become a must-do in New York. Now moored at Chelsea Piers, departures take place in a redesigned setting, offering more direct access to the Hudson River and the vastness of the harbor.

Aboard this 70-foot Herreshoff sailboat, the experience feels like a timeless interlude. For two hours, the crossing reveals Manhattan from a unique perspective, offering sweeping views of the skyline and close passages to the Statue of Liberty. The boat's movement, the changing light, and the gradual distance from the city create an atmosphere that is both immersive and serene.

Meticulously planned, each excursion is accompanied by a gastronomic experience befitting the setting. Passengers savor dishes prepared by The Mark Restaurant by Jean-Georges or Caviar Kaspia, in an elegant and contemporary style. The experience is further enhanced by a selection of wines chosen by the hotel's Head Sommelier, perfectly complementing every moment of the voyage.

Available from May to September, the sailboat offers several sailing dates each month, allowing for both planned getaways and more spontaneous moments throughout the summer. A unique way to rediscover New York, between understated sophistication and the maritime horizon.
