Jacques Grange interiors, a Karl Lagerfeld suite, the largest penthouse in North America and being host to some of the most celebrated guests in history are just a few of the things that The Mark Hotel is best known for. And now New York's most iconoclastic luxury hotel has announced The Mark Grand Slam Extravaganza: a $500,000 four-night experience built around the final weekend of the 2026 US Open, for up to six guests, with John McEnroe giving you a private tennis lesson.

This one of a kind experience starts at The Mark Penthouse, which occupies the hotel's top two floors. It transforms, for the duration of the stay, into a private residence of absolute grandeur. Next, you have six tickets to the Men's Singles Semifinals on Friday the 11th and the Men's Final on Sunday the 13th; private chauffeured transport to and from the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center; bespoke dining throughout from Jean-Georges Vongerichten and Caviar Kaspia at The Mark - both at the hotel and, rather magnificently, served onboard The Mark's own 70-foot Herreshoff sailboat as it charts a private course through New York Harbour past the Statue of Liberty.

And saving best for last, you get a private lesson at the John McEnroe Tennis Academy with John McEnroe himself, which is a flex that many would talk about for years to come.

A portion of the proceeds supports the Academy's mission to bring world-class coaching to young athletes.

The Mark Hotel is located at the corner of Madison Avenue and 77th Street, New York.
